

In The United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 11-490C

(Filed: May 24, 2012)

THE GEO GROUP, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant,

and

COMMUNITY FIRST SERVICES, INC.

Defendant-Intervenor.

ORDER

On March 22, 2012, defendant-intervenor filed a motion to amend the protective order in this case. On April 9, 2012, plaintiff and defendant filed their responses to the motion. On April 19, 2012, defendant-intervenor filed its reply in support of its motion. On May 4, 2012, per this court's order, plaintiff and defendant filed sur-replies to the motion. On May 23, 2012, defendant-intervenor filed a motion for leave to file a response to the sur-replies and to file a copy of a modified protective order that the plaintiff and the defendant-intervenor have moved the court to adopt in their case in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Defendant intervenor's motion for leave is hereby GRANTED, in part, and DENIED, in part. The Clerk shall file the proposed protective order attached to defendant-intervenor's motion; no further briefing will be received on the motion to amend the protective order. Defendant-intervenor shall file a notification with the court within one week after the district court acts on the motion to modify the protective order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
